About Us

Creditz is a self-owned product, created to help companies to identify and choose their audience to which we can provide a loan, meticulously.

Some of the biggest brains of our company employed a very acute and incisive approach in understanding what the risk organizations are might face while providing loans to any individual or any well-established organization, and we had created an algorithm that promises to deliver 99% safety to the loan providers.

We had created an algorithm that promises to deliver 99% safety to the loan providers.
